Usually when someone shows up at your office and tells you that you'll never have anything spicier in your mouth than what he's pushing you lock the door (unless you're Samantha Jones receiving a UPS package.) But Senor Juan (a.k.a. John O'Malley) was telling it to us straight. His Senor Juan Hot & Spicy Pickles are indeed satisfying and unique. Find out for yourself today at Senor Juan's hot & spicy pickle tasting at Sickle's Market from 11 am - 3 pm. Also, see www.srjuan.com.
